

PEACE WITH HONOR

The rebellion against a rule in the state senate still appears to be a serious one. In many instances the rebels have not only failed to secure the passage of the bill, but they have also secured its defeat. The rebels have not only failed to secure the passage of the bill, but they have also secured its defeat. The rebels have not only failed to secure the passage of the bill, but they have also secured its defeat.

In Oregon there is no time to prevent a similar humilation of the republican party. The rebels have not only failed to secure the passage of the bill, but they have also secured its defeat. The rebels have not only failed to secure the passage of the bill, but they have also secured its defeat.

From the number of bills already introduced in the legislature upon the subject of taxation of property for state, county and school purposes, it is much to be hoped that one may be passed by which this vexed question will be settled in accordance with the mandatory provision of the constitution that all taxes shall be equal and uniform.

When men allow themselves to be forced by the power of the majority or any other power to do the bidding of a party machine they abandon a great and sacred trust. They cease to be the representatives of the people who elected them, and become the tools of a vicious political force.

FROM THE CAPITAL

The result at Salem is just what was expected. Mitchell's strikers lost a caucus and nominated their loss. A few men who had voted against Mitchell's election and who had vowed to leave the state in open season, had the moral courage to claim that they would not vote for Mitchell.
